Friendly Montana
Invites You

Governor John W. Bonner

"Hospitality" is no hollow word in Montana.

Treasure State residents take pride in making strangers feel at home. We are one of the few states that operate entry stations at our borders to welcome the visitor and give him every aid in making his stay enjoyable.

You will find Montana an outstanding vacation state. It has great variety . . . in scenery and in things to do. From the garish badlands in the east to the towering Rockies in the west, you'll marvel at this vast vacationland.

When you vacation in Montana, you can see two of America's finest national parks—Glacier and Yellowstone, but a day's drive apart across the State.

Nearly 6,000 miles of hard-surfaced highways traverse Montana. They lead you into an infinite variety of things to see and do. In this "Land of Shining Mountains" are cowboys, Indians, ghost towns, thousands of miles of fishing streams, caverns to explore, huge man-made dams, national battlefields, wildlife, and room to enjoy yourself to the fullest.

You may be a stranger when you arrive, but not for long among Montana's friendly people. Welcome to Montana—may you come again soon.

Cordially yours,

John W. Bonner
